PROVE IT!

Thirteen-year-old wing and his friends are sick of being known as the losers. The Mighty Titans haven't won a game in years and their team has become a joke. Like everyone else, Wing is determined to end the losing streak, but he can't concentrate, knowing that his father, who taught him everything about football, is not sitting in the stands.

As the Mighty Titans fight their way to the top against all odds, Wing is struggling to face his father's illness. For him, winning takes on a whole new meaning. It's not just the taste of victory and the roar of the crowd. It's also holding on to what you have.
