The Maze: A terrifying journey through a world of darkness where the destiny of souls hang in the balance Jason Brannon

A near death experience transports Jamie Burroughs into The Maze, a realm every bit as peculiar as Lewis Carroll's Wonderland, yet engineered with the moral intent of C.S. Lewis' Narnia. Built by angels and demons and filled with traps and riddles, The Maze gives whoever enters a face-to-face encounter with their sins. For Jamie, The Maze becomes a terrifying journey through a world of darkness where his soul and the lives of those he loves hangs in the balance. With his family in danger and his soul in peril, Jamie is forced to reevaluate the kind of man he truly is as he struggles to escape The Maze before it's too late.
