Inside Voice Children Books are fundamental books for toddlers and children published by ABAA Staley Publishing. Our books are designed to support smoother transitions from concrete to abstract thinking abilities in children. During the formal operational stages of cognitive development, children use sensory information from their environment to learn new skills. Inside Voice Children Books has launch the Sixth Sense Series of 12 books, that emphasize the sensory skills of seeing, hearing, tasting, feeling and smelling as they relate to the mental perception. These books are designed to help promote the transition from concrete to abstract thinking during the cognitive stages of development. Also, the Sixth Sense Series will help toddlers and children learn the different parts of the body. Also, build relationships with family members through environmental awareness and interactive applications of each story. Finally, generations of children will learn to read using the Sixth Sense Series, and many will cherish the memory of reading and or listening to the simple and intriguing stories. ABAA Staley Publishing is committed to helping all children learn to read and acquire new skills. We are committed to simplifying the transition from concrete to abstract thinking during the cognitive developmental stages.
