Eternidad: The Serpent & The Dragon (Volume 2) B Thomas Harwood

In this daring second installment of Eternidad; the struggle between the powers of light and darkness has enflamed the temperate waters of the Caribbean into a raging boil.

The strigoi, Grul, begins tracking Peiman, an Arawak shaman believed to be the last of his kind who can interpret the tomes of the lost prophecy. As Grul closes in on his quarry, The Soul Collector masterfully shifts ordnance around the region to ensnare the elusive shaman in an ever-tightening web of warfare that threatens to annihilate the recently liberated slaves of Kairi and Camahogne.

While Peiman spreads the doctrine of the lost prophecy to the freed slaves, The Seer of the Sister Islands embarks on a clandestine mission to relocate the sacred tomes and safeguard the Child of Prophecy. As The Seer struggles to reconcile her feelings against the will of the continuum, the European colonists must resolve divisive questions that - when answered - will determine the fate of every island settlement.

Packed with sweeping epic battles, emotionally charged dialogue, and breathtaking scenery, The Serpent & The Dragon is a resplendent sequel that boldly elevates the standard set by B. Thomas Harwood's critically acclaimed and award winning debut.
