Good Nursing Home Care : 10 Things You Need to Know Patty Robinson

Written by a former Nursing Home Ombudsman and surveyor of nursing homes for Medicare and State Licensing and Certification Surveys, this book identifies for readers 10 of the most common specific care problems in nursing homes and how to prevent these problems from occurring. This book is unique in that it provides readers with the actual standards of care nursing homes are required by law to provide, as well as resident's rights, and how family members and caregivers can assure their loved ones get the care they deserve. It is a resource of services to help keep the elderly independent and act as adjuncts to their care, as well as a candid discussion of emotions accompanying the deteriorating health of a parent.
