Formula One racer Connor Blackwell is recovering from an accident on the racecourse when his father springs an ultimatum on him: Get married or get disinherited. Concern for his father's health prompts him to invent a fake engagement, which forces him to produce a fiancée. Only one woman comes to mind. His personal assistant reluctantly agrees to play the role for a short time, but as Connor and Angelina prepare for a wedding never meant to take place, they're both surprised to find their faux engagement is starting to feel very real. Will they make it to "I do" despite machinations from the woman Connor's father wanted him to marry and their own doubts and insecurities?
