Denov. with others in which the draftsman precedes the mechanic. In the next place, it might be grouped among the painting arts, and occupy a medium position between painting as a fine art, and the more manual occupation of house-painting. In the third place, it might be ranked among those arts in which a woven material of hemp or flax is employed, and this would give rise to a mode of grouping wholly different from both the others. Lastly, it might be deemed one of the arts contributory to the fitting and furnishing of a house; and would then be included among many which had no other bond of connexion. It would not be difficult, in like manner, to lay down other modes of grouping this branch (of manufacture. Without attempting, then, any very clearly marked kind of classification, (we shall give in this volume a sketch of several interesting branches of manufacture which are so far connected as to fall within the last of the four modes of grouping just alluded to namely, they will relate chiefly to the fittings or finishing of a house, or to some of the articles of furniture or of ornament therein proposed. The subject, if we chose so to make it, might include an almost unending variety of details; but for obvious reasons a selection only can be here given.
