Writing, Music, Love... Cat Caié

What if your hobby could become your everyday job? That'd be great, right? Well, how about if you had to leave your first love for it? Would you do it? For 'Rachel and Oscar' there wasn't too much question about it. Which leads us to Ruby being a single writer waiting for the love she lost. Not much has happened (in terms of life events) since they left each other. Until, of course, her book became famous. When the media links Oli's songs to Ruby's debut novel, they have no choice but to meet up for the fans sake. However, is Oli truly the that Oscar she wrote about in her book, 'The Most Remarkable Love Story'? Would meeting up with Oli be a good decision? Or might it just change the lives of both of them extraordinarily?
