Home Sweet Jail: Growing Up With A Dad In Law Enforcement, is a true account of compassion, working together and trusting God, when our family of five lived in the county courthouse for two years and through my Dad's twenty-seven-and-a-half years in law enforcement. Catch a glimpse of the daily life of a police officer and his family, with journal entries, letters from ex-prisoners, family photographs, and accounts of bloopers and hazards of the job.
