Brendan and Belinda and the Slam Dunk! (Good Sports) Anne Rockwell

When it comes to basketball, the Porker twins, Brendan and Belinda, are at the top of their game. They shoot hoops every chance they get, they practice regularly, and at night they study televised pro games with their dad. He hopes that one day they'll be as good as the superstars they see on TV!

No one is happier than Mr. Porker when the twins are recruited to join the elite Jump Shot Juniors League. Except now Brendan and Belinda don't have time for anything but basketball. They are exhausted. But how can they disappoint Dad, their biggest fan?

This action-packed book by Anne Rockwell and Paul Meisel stars two wise young athletes who know that playing for the top-notch team isn't nearly as important as enjoying the game—on and off the court.

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's soul or real their pastime. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we
