This book is anything but somber. In the contrary - although the author takes a hard look at the realities faced by single parents, her assessment of their situation is never grim. The greatest help for single parents lies in an understanding of the Lord's love for them and of his purpose for their lives. Kimberley writes movingly about the blessings of the Spirit and how a family can claim them. She also offers a wealth of practical ideas to help single parents deal with the everyday issues of their lives.
