For all those who love the New York Times crosswords and beat their families at Scrabble, this is a word game to stump even the brainiest of word nerds. Five different categories challenge players to flex every rhetorical muscle, build words, brainstorm synonyms, and test their proofreading skills. For every answer a player gets right, he or she receives a word lover's favorite reward: a letter of the alphabet. Be the first player to come up with a five-letter word (or longer) from your collection, and you'll be champion of the word nerds!
