In this historical science-fiction novel, set in the modern day world, a new future is rapidly approaching for the human race, and the world may never be the same. Three seemingly neutral, parallel courses are permanently interwoven, as they collide with destiny: First, a trio of men are hard at work designing a gene-code sequence that will help end suffering on a massive scale. Unfortunately, one of these men has other, more diabolical ends in mind. Next, a woman is called upon to restore a fallen structure and resurrect a powerful matriarchal society, which will bring balance to the Earth. Finally, a group of archaeologists are close to locating a hidden Egyptian chamber, which could bring about the apocalypse or bring salvation to the human race. Everything happens for a reason.
