Jacinda has loved Ashton for as long as she could remember. As children they were the best of friends. But high school has a way of changing people and it had definitely changed Ashton. Because now he was 'that guy', Ashton didn't even know Jacinda existed. Or did he? Always watching from the wings, Ashton as seen Jacinda blossom from an awkward, nerdy tomboy into a beautifully rare butterfly. A rarity that he intends to make his own. But how do you tell a girl that knows everything about you, the good, the bad, and the horrible that you're in love with her and expect her to take you seriously? Returning to Seattle after being gone for years, Jaxon is fully expecting to re-introduce himself to his old friends and old life without a hitch. But even the best laid plans are sometimes thwarted. More beautiful, intelligent, and feisty than he remembered, Jaxon realizes that Jacinda has once again stolen his heart, and that hers still belonged to Ashton. Or did it? Once labeled 'The Three Musketeers', these three friends were inseparable. Now it would take a force of nature to get, and keep them all in the same room. Ashton loves Jacinda. Jaxon loves Jacinda. and Jacinda loves them both. But who will she choose? Oh what a tangled web we weave!
