His Last Resort A. C. Lottie

A broken promise separates them and death brings them back together, but for good or for bad? After the death of his father, Broderick Morrison becomes detached from the world around him. Just when he's given up all hope, the beautiful presence of an estranged friend restores the broken man that he is. Broderick knows that she is the light in his grieving world and without her nothing else seems to matter, not even living. In order to live a normal life, his plan is to keep her at all costs. Even if that means using insanity and deception as a last resort to loving and blinding her from the truth.
