In Silence: select poems Stephen Timothy Roberts Jr.

A compilation of feelings, experiences, and circumstances referenced and written from his perspective, In Silence wraps honesty into every line. This compilation attends to various situations and pays particular attention to the finer details of life, relationships, and loss. Through thirty-two originally written free verse poems, In Silence touches on Love, Anger, Depression, Lust, and Blackness. This book is both personal and communal. Meant to be a relatable, unapologetic, and assertive declaration - In Silence speaks to the impact life has not only on the author - but on us all in many different ways.
