Revival Sermons William C. G. Burns

Few remains of the work of William Chalmers Burns (1815-1868) survive. These pages will revive Burns' magnificent testimony to the gospel of Jesus Christ. They record some of the messages he preached in days of revival when he was still in his twenties, and even in written form they continue to pulsate with echoes of the power in which they were first preached. To read these pages is to overhear the voice of a man whose zeal for God consumed him.
