With the help of canine history detective Sherlock Bones, this book starts with a look at how the Tudors won the throne of England and then explains all about the military and wars in Tudor times. Topics covered include how people became soldiers, what weapons were used, and what it was like to fight in a major conflict such as the Battle of Flodden. The navy and life for sailors is also investigated, with details on Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada. Full of fascinating information, the book presents the reader with stimulating questions and prompts to help them compile their own projects.
