Grandma Stories:: The Quilt Sarah Morgan Carswell, Tyler Hollis

The story of the quilt is true. I wrote these stories several years ago from a grandchild's perspective, but, they are about my mother. This series of books is to honor her memory. She had a faith filled home and taught our family how to live a simple, caring life with faith and love. She was recycling long before it was popular. She made her own garden, canned her food, made our clothes and her home goods. She was gentle, humble and she set an example of how we all should live.
