Born in Tokyo in 1947, Makoto Nakamura began creating tessellations in the 1970s after studying graphic design at the Tama Art University. He later founded the Japan Tessellation Design Association, which aims to further the field of tessellation art and holds annual exhibitions. These days he works digitally, even creating animations from his tessellations, as well as in three dimensions, making complex spheres out of the same sorts of creatures found here.
