Hollywood, 1949. A time when the movies were king and the movie stars merely pawns for the studio bosses. A time when passion was lauded but sex never discussed. So when young British actor Patrick Glass embarks on a scandalous gay love affair with his famous co-star Jackson Harper, he starts to feel the full force of the studio's career-destroying muscle... Forty years later, as the truths of the past are uncovered, the true consequences of this 'unacceptable' romance come to light... The Glass Protégé is a powerful play about the image, money and power obsessed 'Hollywood Machine'.
