A School on the Prairie: A Centennial History of Hesston College, 1909-2009 John E. Sharp

This 100-year narrative history of Hesston College tells the compelling story of Kansas Mennonites at the turn of the twentieth century who developed a powerful vision for educating their children. Decade by decade the story unfolds, from difficult beginnings through two world wars, the Great Depression, cultural transitions, theological challenges, financial crises, and shifting demographics. The book offers a rich tapestry of faculty and staff whose passion inspired and motivated students to serve church and world.
