With full knowledge of her past, Amanda can now claim a new future for those she cares about and herself. No longer crippled by who she was, she strives to become more than what she's been taught. The third installment in the Finding Me trilogy finds Amanda ready to shed all signs of Chloe forever. She and Melissa arrive in Tierra on a secret mission only Amanda and Chris know exists. They are in search of the one thing that will thwart General Faraday's plans of global annihilation. But is she prepared to put everything she ever valued in life in danger for the people of Earth. And if she chooses to stay her course, what will become of her people on Savoria? Lurking in the shadows, scheming to alter every decision Amanda makes, is a sinister adversary that will leave her reeling. And when the time comes for Amanda to confront her father, will she falter under the pressure of his love or will her newfound goodness sustain her until the end?
