Brady Brady and the Icehogs were thrilled to be playing in the most important hockey tournament of the season – The Gold Stick. All the Icehogs worked hard on their playing skills – and on making sure that everyone in town knew about the tournament. There were posters everywhere describing the big event. Brady Brady was so excited he slept in his equipment the night before the first Gold Stick game. The Icehogs played well; the arena was crowded, and the Icehogs advanced to the final. Then trouble struck. The Icehogs' opponents for the final match-up were the Dragoons. Everyone knew the Dragoons played dirty hockey; they tripped opponents, slashed, and cheated. But the Icehogs rose to the challenge, and the final game of the Gold Stick proved a valuable lesson for all involved.
