SynopsisA college student's futuristic adventure living deep inside the centre of the earth. Drama humour and an exciting mystery that keeps the reader in suspense, wondering what will happen next. The story line culminates in a journey through time to see a miracle in Galilee, with a subtle Christian message. Author BiographyBorn in Hertfordshire England I've travelled extensively living and working in different cultures. Consequently I have friends in various countries including the United States, Singapore and Holland. It was during this time I came to a deep conviction of faith that has been tested many times, but has supported me and brought me in to an even deeper understanding of a God who knows us intimately. Through this experience I now speak and minister with understanding to others. I have always loved writing and penned many poems, but this is my first full length novel. I am married to Maurice a lovely Yorkshireman and live in the beautiful Yorkshire Dales. I have two wonderful sons Chris married to Betty, David and four grandchildren, Bethany, Sophie, Christopher and Joshua plus a super extended family. Consequently I wrote this book mainly for my grandchildren to enjoy as an adventure story. Journeying, I have seen the power of a mighty God in action unlocking people from darkness. This has convinced me that we face a battle in the supernatural, already won on the cross, but we contend for the ground now. This is the privilege we have of being ambassadors for Christ. I appreciate my family and friends encouragement. Desiring never to forget the roots that I come from and the special people who have made me in to the woman I am today I smile at the recollections.."
