1. Conspire with a hitwoman to murder my husband's lovers.
2. Frame my husband for their murders.
3. Tell no one and to hell with the church.

This is just the beginning of a vengeful to-do list for beautiful pastor's wife and successful salon owner Lavender Wallace. After all, it's not every night she finds her husband of almost twenty years, Pastor Quincy Wallace, with a prominent deacon kneeling before him in the pulpit—if only it were in prayer. With God taking entirely too long, Lavender satisfies her growing contempt by teaching her husband a malicious lesson that his faith never could. But trying not to fall for the detective investigating the case of her husband's disappearing lovers proves difficult for a lonely and scorned wife. Shielding a doting teenaged son from his father's secrets is even harder...

As old lies are exposed and a deadly plot backfires threatening to destroy those she loves most, Lavender is forced to make a life-altering decision—the bible or the bullet?
