Lloyd and Frances Mino reached high enough to know God and deep enough to know the hearts of people. They left a legacy that anyone would be proud of and their children and children's children are not only proud, but greatly appreciative of how they lived their lives and the legacy they left them to continue. The story starts in the heart of England and crosses the sea to the great land of Canada. Here is but a small portion of the love, kindness and caring they instilled in the hearts of those closest, nearest and dearest to them. Here is the Mino story.
