Ninety-nine Gnats, Nits, and Nibblers May R. Berenbaum

It's an arthropods' world. We just live in it. In this classic of natural history, National Medal of Science-winning entomologist May R. Berenbaum weaves a web of spellbinding portraits that acquaints readers with the multitudes sharing our world and, alas, our kitchen. Go small or go home as Berenbaum reveals: Â· Why the "Jesus bug" can walk on water Â· How the katydid's nighttime noise inspired romantic poetry Â· The trapping prowess of the hungry antlion Â· That disgusting thing chiggers do to eat your skin A witty guide that's as accessible as the container of flour you should have closed more tightly, Ninety-nine Gnats, Nits, and Nibblers adds a new Berenbaum preface to the fascinating story of our million closest neighbors.
