Have you ever awoken in pain? John is waking in pain. Not just the crippling physical pain that he is use to waking with, but a much deeper and more disturbing kind that eats away at his courage, dragging him deeper into despair. This is a story about one man's struggle to be just like everyone else even though he was born different. For thirty-two years he has fought the Hammer of pain, and struggled to build a life with his broken body. A life he felt he had no right to. He is finally giving up now, too tired and beaten to find the courage he needs to pick himself up yet again. Where will the darkness take him, and how can the light of LOVE find him and lead him home?
